Pancakes for All;

The Board of GMDx Group Ltd are pleased to announce that the companies BDO Matthew Kilpatrick made an exceptional batch of pancakes this morning. This outstanding achievement has been recognised by expert peers and pancake aficionado's world-wide. As such, Matthew Kilpatrick has been nominated for acceptance into the Pancake Hall of Fame being the pinnacle of recognition for exceptional pancake making skills and execution of same in the home kitchen. The board of GMDx are delighted to see one of the founding members of the company achieve this level of industry recognition and achievement. The Board expressed a small concern that Matthew appears to be gaining considerable weight. Matthew advised it was not the pancakes, he is just big boned.

I may never ride again;

Bernie Romanin the Company's CEO went for a 20km bike ride and complained of a sore shoulder and chaffing in the buttock's region. Subsequently the Board are pleased to advise that Bernie was provided a large tube of anti-inflammatory cream and furthermore the Board strongly advised Bernie that he should wear underpants in the future when riding his bike. Bernie confirmed he will utilise the cream and apply liberally and adopt the wearing of men's underpants for future bike rides.

Authorised by the Board of Directors.

Yours faithfully
